Form 1099-K for 2026: Who Gets One and When

The reporting test and the 2027 dates for tax year 2026

| ITEM | THE RULE | DATE OR TEST |
|---|---|---|
| Payment apps and online marketplaces | Both tests must be met | Over $20,000 and over 200 transactions |
| Payment card transactions | The exception is written for third party network transactions | Check the card processor's form |
| Gifts and shared costs from friends and family | Not reportable on Form 1099-K and not taxable | Mark them personal in the app |
| Copy to you | Jan. 31 falls on a Sunday in 2027 | Mon., Feb. 1, 2027 |
| IRS, paper filing | Feb. 28 falls on a Sunday in 2027 | Mon., March 1, 2027 |
| IRS, electronic filing | Electronic filers get March 31 | Wed., March 31, 2027 |

My notes

Source: Internal Revenue Service, Instructions for Form 1099-K (12/2026), Publication 1099 (2026) and Understanding your Form 1099-K, read Nov. 6, 2026.