When Polls Close on Election Day, Nov. 3, 2026

Closing time of most polling places in each state, in Eastern Standard Time · daylight saving time ends Nov. 1 · anyone in line at closing time can still vote

6 p.m. ET	Indiana* · Kentucky*
7 p.m. ET	Florida* · Georgia · South Carolina · Vermont · Virginia
7–8 p.m. ET	New Hampshire*
7:30 p.m. ET	North Carolina · Ohio · West Virginia
8 p.m. ET	Alabama · Connecticut · Delaware · District of Columbia · Illinois · Kansas* · Maine · Maryland · Massachusetts · Michigan* · Mississippi · Missouri · New Jersey · Oklahoma · Pennsylvania · Rhode Island · South Dakota* · Tennessee* · Texas*
8–10 p.m. ET	North Dakota*
8:30 p.m. ET	Arkansas
9 p.m. ET	Arizona · Colorado · Iowa · Louisiana · Minnesota · Nebraska* · New Mexico · New York · Wisconsin · Wyoming
10 p.m. ET	Idaho* · Montana · Nevada · Utah
11 p.m. ET	California · Oregon* · Washington*
midnight ET	Alaska* · Hawaii

* Part of the state closes later: Alaska: Aleutian Islands 1 a.m. ET · Florida: Panhandle (Central) 8 p.m. ET · Idaho: northern Idaho (Pacific) 11 p.m. ET · Indiana: Central-time counties 7 p.m. ET · Kansas: counties may stay open to 8 p.m.; western Mountain-time counties later · Kentucky: western Kentucky (Central) 7 p.m. ET · Michigan: four Upper Peninsula counties (Central) 9 p.m. ET · Nebraska: Mountain-time Panhandle closes 7 p.m. MT, also 9 p.m. ET · New Hampshire: towns set hours · North Dakota: closing time depends on precinct · Oregon: all-mail; ballot drop sites close · South Dakota: western South Dakota (Mountain) 9 p.m. ET · Tennessee: counties set hours · Texas: El Paso and Hudspeth counties (Mountain) 9 p.m. ET · Washington: all-mail; ballot drop boxes close.

Sources: state election offices and statutes (for example Louisiana R.S. 18:541), National Association of Secretaries of State compilations. Check your county for local hours.