Home Maintenance Checklist 2027 by Month

Sourced monthly, seasonal and storm-season tasks for 2027

TEST SMOKE AND CO ALARMS EVERY MONTH (USFA)

- [ ] January 2027 _____
- [ ] February 2027 _____
- [ ] March 2027 _____
- [ ] April 2027 _____
- [ ] May 2027 _____
- [ ] June 2027 _____
- [ ] July 2027 _____
- [ ] August 2027 _____
- [ ] September 2027 _____
- [ ] October 2027 _____
- [ ] November 2027 _____
- [ ] December 2027 _____

SEASONAL AND SAFETY TASKS

Once a year

- [ ] Test for radon (EPA action level 4 pCi/L)
- [ ] Replace smoke and CO alarm batteries (CPSC: yearly)
- [ ] Replace each smoke alarm 10 years after its made date (USFA)

Cold weather

- [ ] Insulation, caulking and weather stripping before the freeze
- [ ] Learn how to keep pipes from freezing

Water

- [ ] Declutter drains and gutters
- [ ] Check valves and the battery sump pump

Storm season

- [ ] Eastern Pacific hurricane season begins May 15
- [ ] Atlantic hurricane season begins June 1
- [ ] Both hurricane seasons end Nov. 30

Alarm ages, filter sizes and service dates

Source: U.S. Fire Administration (USFA), Smoke Alarms; Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC), CO Alarms; Environmental Protection Agency (EPA), radon; Ready.gov Winter Weather and Floods; National Hurricane Center. Test days are your pick: we suggest the first Saturday of each month.